Reading Challenge

Since Canada is celebrating it's 150th birthday this year, Mayor Moses Tucker wants to personally challenge readers to expand their Canadian reading horizons! How many different Canadian books can you read throughout the summer?

If you complete the Mayor's special challenge, he will personally present you with a special certificate during our end of summer party!

You have until Friday August 25th to complete this challenge and bring your booklet to the PCSP Library.
