(a) the municipal official's private interests are affected where the decision may result in a gain or loss to the municipal official's private interests or the private interests of a relative, except where the decision is one of a broad class of the public; or

(b) the municipal official is unable to act impartially on behalf of the municipality due to the municipal official's personal relationships (where the personal relationship would result in favoritism or prejudice to the person to whom the municipal official has a personal relationship).

a. Declaration

Where a Councillor has an interest as set out herein, the Councillor shall declare the conflict, disclose the general nature, refrain from participating in discussion and refrain from voting.

That interest and that statement respecting his or her interest shall be recorded in the minutes of the Council, or a committee of the Council, where that statement was made at a committee meeting. Where a Councillor declaring a conflict of interest is the Presiding Officer, he or she shall vacate the chair.

b. Uncertainty

Where a Councillor is uncertain as to whether he or she has a private interest or personal relationship that is a conflict of interest, he or she shall disclose the nature and ask the Council to decide the question by majority vote. A Councillor whose possible conflict of interest is being voted on is not entitled to vote. Where the vote is a tied vote, the Councillor shall be considered to have a conflict of interest.

4. COUNCIL DOCUMENTS

a. MINUTES

Minutes of all open meetings of Council shall be recorded by the Clerk or designate as appropriate.

Such minutes shall contain:

- All those in attendance at the meeting.
- All motions and resolutions coming before Council, including the names of the movers and seconders.
- The names of all Councillors voting against or abstaining from voting on the motions.
- A brief description of comments, reports, petitions, presentations or documents submitted to Council for the purpose of providing the reader of the minutes with an understanding of the decisions of Council and not for the purposes of recording lengthy descriptions of what was said or presented and by whom.
- Reports accepted by Council may be attached to Minutes.

Minutes should reflect what was done in the meeting, not what individual Councillors or staff said. Unanimous consent or a majority vote is required to include individual comments.

Copies of minutes will be distributed to Councillors via electronic format prior to the next meeting.

Minutes of the Council Meeting will be placed on the municipalities Website following its completion with a statement to the effect that such minutes are not the official transcript which can only be provided following their adoption at the next Open Council Meeting.

If any Councillor objects to any portion of the minutes of the preceding meeting, in the Open Council Meeting adopting them, he or she shall state the grounds of objection.

If all members of Council agree with the correction, the motion adopting the minutes shall contain the necessary corrections.

If all members of Council do not consent to the correction of the Minutes, then a motion must be made and seconded to amend the minutes to meet the objection, which shall then be debatable.

b. AGENDA for OPEN COUNCIL MEETINGS

Prior to each regular meeting of Council, the Clerk or designate shall prepare an agenda of all business to be brought before the Open Meeting, and the Agenda shall be distributed to Council by the Clerk or designate on the Friday prior to meeting.

Any member of Council may submit to the Clerk or designate an item for inclusion in the Agenda under “New Business”, or “Notices of Motion”, provided that the item is submitted by 12:00 p.m. (noon), Friday, prior to the date fixed for the Council Meeting.

The format of the Agenda shall be as follows:

Calling the Meeting to Order

Approval by adoption of Agenda

Delegations / Presentations

Adoption of Minutes

Business Arising from the Minutes

Committee Reports by name of each Committee

Correspondence

General Business (New/Unfinished)

Notice of Motion (for next meeting)

Adjournment

Occasionally, additional material will be added or changed after the agenda is sent. In these cases, the electronic file will be updated and a hardcopy will be placed on each Councillors desk in chambers. Councillors shall have access to the electronic agenda repository in order to be able to open the latest version.

c. AGENDA for SPECIAL MEETINGS

The order of business shall be in accordance with the items specified in the Notice for that meeting. Council shall proceed immediately to consider the business for which the meeting was called, and only the business specified in the Notice calling the meeting shall be dealt with, unless otherwise decided by unanimous consent or by majority vote.

Council can convene and bring forth its recommendations on the basis on four Councillor being in attendance.

d. NEW BUSINESS – OPEN COUNCIL MEETING

New business during the Open Council Meeting is limited to items of information, attendance at previous events, notice of upcoming events, congratulatory items and is not intended for substantive items or those which require decisions of Council unless otherwise decided by unanimous consent. New business is limited to a maximum of two (2) minutes per Councillor unless otherwise decided by unanimous consent.

e. NOTICE OF MOTION

Prior to Council's consideration of introducing any By-Law(s) or amendment to a By-Law under the Act, a Notice of Motion, in writing, shall be tabled at a regular Open Council Meeting and shall be placed on the Agenda under the Notice of Motion section.

5. MOTIONS

The word motion refers to a formal proposal by a Councillor, in a meeting, that the Council take certain action. Before a subject can be considered, it must be placed before the Council in the form of a motion. There are five (5) classes of motions:

- a. Main motions – introduces new business;
- b. Subsidiary motions – assist in treating or disposing of a main motion;
- c. Privileged motions – do not relate to the pending business but have a high priority;
- d. Incidental motions - change the procedure for handling the pending business but do not change what is being considered;
- e. Motions that bring a question again before the Council – bring business already decided back before the assembly.

a. MAIN MOTION

The main motion is the lowest ranking motion and can be made only when no other motion is pending. When adopted, it becomes the officially recorded statement of an action taken by the Council. Every motion or resolution should be in writing and should be worded in a concise, unambiguous, and complete form and should be stated or read by the mover (who alone can make introductory remarks thereon) and when duly moved and seconded, and stated by the Presiding Officer, shall be open for consideration and discussion. Motions, wherever possible, should be stated in the positive, so that when the vote is taken yes means yes and no means no. One example of an exception is to deny a development application.

b. SUBSIDIARY MOTIONS

The following subsidiary motions are listed in order of rank and take precedence over or ranks over, the main motion.

- Lay on the Table: This motion is designed to be used to set aside the pending business temporarily without setting a time for resuming its consideration in order to take up something more urgent.

An example of its use is when a member of the public is in attendance and Council wishes to consider a committee report, in which the member of the public has an interest, prior to its scheduled order in the approved Agenda. Another appropriate use of the motion to lay on the table is to temporarily set aside agenda items in order to consider a particular item.

- Previous question: The purpose of this motion is to close debate and is sometimes referred to as Call the Question.

A Councillor must be recognized by the Presiding Officer to make this motion and unless unanimous consent is provided, a seconder is required and a two-thirds vote is necessary for adoption.

Whenever a motion infringes on the rights of a Councillor, a two-thirds vote is required for adoption.

The previous question shall preclude all amendments of the main questions and shall be put in the following words: “that the question be now put”. If the motion is resolved in the affirmative, the original question shall be put forthwith without any amendment or debate. If the motion is resolved in the negative, the main question may then be debated and amended.

- Limit or Extend the Limits of Debate: If it appears that debate is consuming too much time, if additional time is needed, or if one or more Councillors need to speak more than once to adequately debate a motion, a Councillor may make a motion to Limit or Extend the Limits of Debate.

Since this motion affects the basic rights of Councillors and unless unanimous consent is provided, a two-thirds vote is necessary for adoption.

- Postpone to a Certain Time (or Definitely): If the Council is not ready to take a final vote on a motion, it can be postponed until later in the same or to the next meeting. If it is postponed to the next meeting, it will be included on the agenda.
- Commit or Refer or Defer: When it is beneficial to have a committee or staff review a proposed motion or to provide additional information, a motion to commit or refer or defer can be proposed. In either case, the Council should provide suggested deadlines for the committee or staff so that the business will be handled in a timely manner. The only method to temporarily dispose of a motion beyond the next regular meeting is to commit or refer.
- Friendly Amendment: If the Presiding Officer has not yet stated the motion, the mover of the motion has the ability to modify the original motion or to accept the proposed change that may be suggested by another Councillor by way of a “Friendly Amendment”. The seconder of the motion is not consulted.

If the Presiding Officer has stated the motion, the mover of the motion cannot individually accept or deny the “Friendly Amendment”. The proposed change should be offered, and voted on, as any other amendment unless unanimous consent is provided.

- Amend: If the main motion would be more suitable in an altered form, a motion to amend can be made. Motions to amend must be germane to the main motions; that is, they must relate to the business at hand.

There are three ways to amend:

- 1 To insert or add
 - a) insert within the motion
 - b) add at the end of the motion.
- 2 Strike out words or a paragraph.
- 3. Strike out and insert words, or substitute a paragraph (strike out the entire text and insert another in its place).

A proposal to amend is a primary amendment and can be amended by a secondary amendment.

The amendments are voted on in reverse order, Council first voting on the secondary amendment, next the primary amendment (perhaps as amended), and finally the main motion (or main motion as amended). If there is general agreement, the amendments may be approved by unanimous consent.

- Postpone Indefinitely: This motion kills, or disposes of, the main motion for the remainder of the meeting without bringing it to a direct vote. It is used if an embarrassing main motion has been proposed or Councillors wish to defeat the proposal without going on the record as having voted “no” on the motion.

c. PRIVILEGED MOTIONS

This class of motions does not relate to the pending business but rather to special matters of immediate importance that should be allowed to interrupt business. None of these motions is debatable when a main motion or subsidiary motion is under consideration.

These motions are listed in order of rank and their rank begins above the highest-ranking subsidiary motion.

- Fix the Time to Which to Adjourn: This is the motion to set an adjourned meeting. By majority vote, the Council establishes the date, time, and place for the continuance of the present meeting. Adoption of this motion does not immediately or necessarily adjourn the current meeting.
- Adjourn: The motion to adjourn is a proposal to close the meeting entirely. Even if the adopted agenda or order of business has not been completed, by majority vote the Council may adjourn the meeting.

Uncompleted items of business are listed as unfinished business at the next meeting.

A motion to adjourn requires a seconder and is always in order except when:

- A Councillor is addressing the Presiding Officer.
- A vote is being taken, and it has been decided that the previous question shall be taken.

A motion to adjourn cannot be amended and is not debatable. No second motion to adjourn shall be made until some intermediate proceedings have transpired.

However, a motion to adjourn the Council meeting or the debate to a given day may be amended or the debate to a given day may be amended and is open to debate.

- Recess: To take a short intermission in the meeting, a Councillor may make a motion to recess and a seconder is required. It is amendable as to the amount of time for the recess or the time to reconvene the meeting and requires a majority vote unless unanimous consent is provided.
- Raise a Question of Privilege: Any Councillor has the right to request certain privileges for themselves or for Council. This request usually has to do with the Councillor's comfort level (excessive noise, inadequate lighting, uncomfortable temperature, etc.) or affecting the Councillor's ability to make an informed decision (cannot hear the speaker, doesn't have the report, can't see the illustrations, etc.). No recognition by the Presiding Officer is needed to make this motion, and the Presiding Officer takes the appropriate action without vote of Council.
- Call for the Orders of the Day: If the adopted agenda or order of business is not being followed, any Councillor may bring this to the attention of the Presiding Officer. If the wrong item was announced, the Councillor does not need to be recognized and may interrupt business to bring it to the Presiding Officer's attention. If a motion has been made, however, the Councillor must wait until the motion has been disposed of. (Continued) The agenda must be followed unless Council decides by a two-thirds vote not to proceed to the orders of day or unless unanimous consent is provided.

d. INCIDENTAL MOTIONS

This class of motions relates to the pending question in such a way that it must be decided immediately before any other business intervenes. The listing of motions does not indicate rank, merely the order of the motions as found in Robert's Rules of Order.

- Point of order: Whenever a Councillor believes that the rules are being violated; it is the Councillor's duty to raise a point of order at the time of the breach. The motion effectively requires the Presiding Officer to rule on the question involved. Unless the breach is of a continuing nature, the point of order must be made immediately after the infraction; otherwise, it is too late.
- Appeal: If a Councillor disagrees with the ruling of the Presiding Officer, an appeal from the decision of the Presiding Officer can be made. This motion must be seconded, and the rules of debate change. The Presiding Officer is allowed to speak first to explain the reason for the ruling. Each Councillor is then allowed to speak once in debate. After all who wish to speak have done so, the Presiding Officer may explain again the reason for the ruling. These rules hold even if the Presiding Officer normally does not have the right to speak in debate from the chair. The vote is taken not on the appeal but rather on the Presiding Officer's decision. A majority or a tie vote sustains the decision of the chair on the principle that the chair's decision stands until reversed by a majority.
- Suspend the rules: When the Council wishes to do something that its rules prohibit, a motion to suspend the rules may be made, so long as the rule may be suspended. Bylaws, statutory law, or rules that embody basic parliamentary law, such as only Councillors are allowed to vote, cannot be suspended. The vote required for passage depends on the type of rule, and the rule is only suspended for that particular meeting.
- Objection to the Consideration of a Question: Councillors may object to the consideration of a question for any original main motion that they think would do harm for the Council to even consider. This motion must be made before any discussion begins or any subsidiary motion has been stated. If there are two-thirds against consideration, the question is dropped; otherwise, the question is considered.
- Division of a Question: If the motion has several parts that are capable of standing as separate motions, any Councillor may move to divide the question. If a division of the question is adopted, the vote is then taken individually on each part.

If a motion cannot reasonably be so divided, the request shall be declared out of order by the presiding officer.

- Consideration by Paragraph or Seriatim: A Councillor may move to consider a long motion (consisting of a series of paragraphs, articles, or sections) by paragraph or seriatim rather than as a whole. Each part is opened for debate and amendment separately, and then the entire document is considered for adoption.

- Division of the Assembly: A Councillor who doubts the result of a voice vote can call for a division of the assembly. No second is required. Making this motion requires that the vote be retaken by a roll call vote (each Councillor is named and his vote is announced and recorded).
- Request to be excused from a Duty: If a Councillor wishes to be relieved from an obligation imposed by virtue of office or position (such as appointed to a committee) a request to be excused from this duty can be made.
- Parliamentary Inquiry: This is a request from a Councillor for the Presiding Officer's guidance on a matter of parliamentary procedure. The Presiding Officer does not rule on this motion, but rather provides the answer to the Councillor's question.
- Point of Information: This motion is an inquiry regarding facts affecting the pending business. The Presiding Officer may choose to answer or direct another Councillor or staff member to provide the requested information.
- Withdraw or Modify a Motion: After the Presiding Officer states a motion; the Councillor who made the motion must request permission to withdraw it or modify it in any manner. A majority vote, or unanimous consent, is required to grant such permission.
- Request to Read Papers: No Councillor may read from papers, books, magazines, etc., without the permission of the Council. This is usually granted by unanimous Consent.
- Request for Any Other Privilege: A Councillor may request any other privilege (not covered by the previous four types of motion), such as to make a presentation when no motion is pending. Permission is usually granted by unanimous consent.

e. MOTIONS THAT BRING A QUESTION AGAIN BEFORE THE COUNCIL

This class of motions brings back before the Council, business that has already been adopted. There is no ranking among the motions, and their order is as listed in Robert's Rules of Order.

- Take from the Table: At the same or next meeting after a question has been laid on the table, any Councillor may move to take it from the table. When a motion is taken from the table by majority vote, it is before the Council at exactly the point when it was laid on the table. If not taken from the table by the end of the next regular meeting, the motion dies.
- Rescind: Amend Something Previously: To entirely strike out a main motion, section, paragraph or rule that has previously been adopted, a motion to rescind can be made. If it is desired instead to change the previously adopted business, the motion to amend something previously adopted can be made. Approval of either form of the motion requires

- (a) a two-thirds vote, or
- (b) a majority vote when notice of intent was given at the previous meeting or in the call of the meeting.

When something has been done as a result of the initial vote that is impossible to undo, these motions are not in order.

- Discharge a Committee: If a question was referred to a committee that has not yet reported and the Council wishes to take it out of the committee's hands so that the Council can consider it or drop it altogether, a motion to Discharge the committee is in order. A Standing Committee is discharged from considering the referred business, whereas a Special Committee that is discharged ceases to exist. The necessary vote to approve this motion is the same as to rescind or amend something previously adopted. However, if the committee fails to report in the time prescribed or if the Council is considering a partial committee report, only a majority vote is required to discharge the committee.
- Reconsideration during a Council Meeting: If a Councillor voted on the prevailing side on a question – that is, yes if it was adopted or no if it was lost – and had a change of mind, a motion to reconsider may be made during the meeting in which the original vote was taken. If the question receives a majority vote, then the original motion is back before the assembly at the point just before the initial vote was taken – as if it had not been previously considered.
- Reconsideration after a Council Meeting: Any question, except one of indefinite postponement may be reconsidered, providing a notice of motion of reconsideration is given by a Councillor who voted on the prevailing side (if the vote was passed a Councillor who voted in favour or if the vote was lost or tied by a Councillor who voted against the motion). If the motion to reconsider is carried by a majority of Councillors present and voting, the main question shall then be read and will be open to debate the same as an original motion. A motion shall not be reconsidered more than once.

6. PROCEDURE FOR MOTIONS

a. MOTIONS DURING DEBATE

When a question is under debate, the following motions shall be in order:

- To extend the time of the meeting where the time of the meeting has been established.
- To refer or commit a matter being considered by Council.
- To amend a motion being considered by Council.
- To lay a motion on the table.

- To postpone a motion indefinitely.
- To move the previous question.

Every motion shall be seconded before being put to the body or debated.

b. WITHDRAWAL OF MOTION

c. ADDRESSING THE MOTION

Councillors may not speak against a motion they made, but may vote against it.

d. ENTITLEMENT TO SPEAK

If two or more Councillors speak at the same time, the Presiding Officer shall determine which Councillor is entitled to speak.

e. ORDER DURING CONSIDERATION OF MOTION

(a) When the Presiding Officer is putting a question no Councillor shall walk out of the Council Chambers and when a Councillor is speaking or a question is being put, no Councillor shall hold any private discourse or make any noise or disturbance or interrupt a speaker, except to raise a point of order, explain, or ask a question.

(b) Call to Order- The presiding officer may call a member to order while debate is in progress. The debate shall then be suspended and the member called to order shall not speak again until the point of order has been decided.

f. DEBATE PROCEDURE AND LENGTH OF DEBATE

During debate, Councillors shall confine themselves to the question and avoid personalities. No Councillor, without the consent of Council, shall speak longer than three (3) minutes at any one time, or more than once on any motion or amendment thereto, except in explanation of a material part of their remarks, which may have been misunderstood, but then they shall not be permitted to introduce new matter. The mover of a motion, however, may speak twice. Debate shall be closed after this second occasion.

g. REREADING OF MOTION

Any Councillor may require the question or motion under discussion to be read for information by the Mover at any period during the debate, but not so as to interrupt a Councillor speaking. The mover may delegate the reading to the Clerk.

7. VOTING

a. GENERAL

- 1) A motion before a town council shall be decided by a majority vote of the councillors in attendance at the meeting except where a vote of 2/3 of the councillors in office is required.
- 2) A councillor shall not abstain from voting on a motion before the town council unless the councillor is required to abstain from voting because of a conflict of interest under the Municipal Conduct Act .
- 3) Where a motion to approve fails, it constitutes a rejection. Conversely, where a motion to reject fails, the decision does not signify approval of said matter.

b. RECORDED VOTE
