

Public Notice of Types of Acceptable Identification

If your name is not on the municipality's voter list, you have four options to prove your identity and address:

1) Confirmation of your identity by an Election Official

- An election official can confirm your identity. An election official can confirm the identities of as many people as necessary.

OR

2) Show one piece of Government issued photo ID that shows both your name and current address, such as:

- your driver's license
- any other government issued ID with your photo, name and current address

OR

3) Show two pieces of ID which, together, confirm your name and current address.

At least one piece of identification must have your current address. You may bring a printed copy or show the election official on a mobile device. For example:

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|--|
| • health card | • bank statement |
| • Canadian passport | • personal cheque |
| • birth certificate | • government cheque/cheque stub |
| • certificate of Canadian citizenship | • or pension plan statement |
| • citizenship card | • residential lease or sub-lease |
| • social insurance number card | • mortgage contract or statement |
| • old age security card | • income tax assessment |
| • hospital card | • property tax assessment or |
| • label on a prescription container | • evaluation |
| • identity bracelet issued by a | • vehicle ownership, insurance |
| hospital or long-term care facility | certificate, policy or statement |
| • blood donor card | • letter of confirmation of residence, |
| • student identity card | letter of stay, admission form or |
| • public transportation card | statement of benefits from one of |
| • library card | the following designated |
| • utility bill (e.g. electricity; | establishments: |
| telecommunications services | ◦ student residence |
| including telephone, cable or | ◦ seniors' residence |
| satellite) | ◦ long-term care facility |

OR

4) If you cannot present ID that shows your name and address, you must take an oath or affirmation (MEF-13)

Important information about ID:

- Your name and current address must be printed (not handwritten) on the ID.
- An expired ID is acceptable, provided it includes your name and current address. The list above is not an exhaustive list. If you have questions about the types of acceptable identification for voting or registration, contact your Returning Officer.